

Calendar of Events

November 2015

11/07-14/2015

American Indian Film Festival

The world's oldest festival dedicated to films by and about Native Americans showcases new and exciting work.

Contact
AMC Metreon, 415-554-0525
<http://aifisf.com/festival/2014/>

11/13-15/2015

San Francisco Green Festival

This joint project of Green America and Global Exchange brings individuals, businesses and investors together to work cooperatively on positive social and economic solutions for communities and the environment. This is one of the largest and most authentic sustainability events in the world.

Contact
Cow Palace, Geneva Avenue and Santos Street, 800-584-7336
www.greenfestivals.org

11/20-22/2015

San Francisco Hip-Hop Dance Festival

This festival will feature excellent professional dance companies from around the world. In addition, master classes taught by some of the visiting artists will be offered, along with a VIP/Performer party to celebrate the convergence of artists with the public.

Contact
Palace of Fine Arts Theater
www.sfhiphopdancefest.com

11/20/2015

Embarcadero Center Building Lighting Ceremony

Bring the family to stroll through a holiday fair, enjoy live entertainment and witness the lighting of the Embarcadero Center's dramatic office towers which illuminate the San Francisco skyline with 17,000 lights throughout the season.

Contact
Justin Herman Plaza, Embarcadero Center, 800-733-6318
www.embarcaderocenter.com

11/21-22/2015

The Renegade Craft Fair

The best makers of handmade goods from the Bay Area and beyond assemble for this free-to-attend marketplace for indie-craft culture, featuring interactive workshops.

Contact
Fort Mason Center
www.renegadecraft.com/sanfrancisco

11/21-28/2015

San Francisco International Automobile Show

Featuring the world's major manufacturers displaying their model cars, SUV's, trucks and vans...almost 800 vehicles in all.

Contact
Moscone Center, 415-331-4406
www.sfautoshow.com

NOVEMBER 21-DECEMBER 20 (FIVE WEEKENDS INCLUDING FRIDAY AFTER THANKSGIVING)

The Great Dickens Christmas Fair

The Dickens Christmas Fair revives the tradition of an old English Victorian Christmas with theaters, a music hall, dance parties, taverns, shops, stalls, food, street vendors and period costumes.

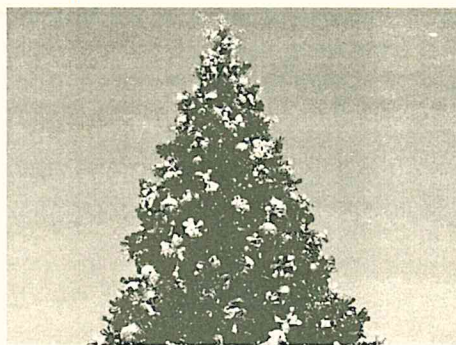

Contact
Cow Palace, 415-897-4555
www.dickensfair.com

11/21-22/2015

Tree Lighting Celebration at PIER 39

Engage in fun for the whole family with interactive exhibits, holiday sing-alongs and more. PIER 39's majestic tree, adorned with glistening ornaments and twinkling lights will be lit in the Entrance Plaza.

Contact
Pier 39, 415-705-5500
www.pier39.com

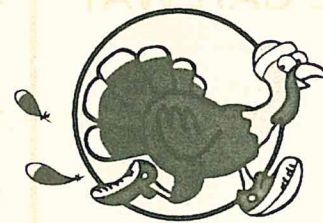

11/26/2015

Turkey Trail Trot

This invigorating fun run or walk has become a popular Thanksgiving Day tradition.

Contact
Golden Gate Park
www.turkeytrailtrot.com

11/27/2015

Ghirardelli Square Tree Lighting Ceremony

Ghirardelli's magical square comes alive with colorful performers, music and a 50-foot Christmas tree lighting up the night.

Contact
Ghirardelli Square, 415-775-5500
www.ghirardellisq.com

11/27/2015

Union Square Tree Lighting Ceremony

The annual illumination of Macy's Great Tree includes more than 1,500 ornaments adorning the tree.

Contact
Union Square, Powell and Geary Streets, 415-781-7880
www.visitunionsquaresf.com or www.macys.com/believe

11/27-29/2015

Celebration of Craftswomen

Visit the annual celebration of the nation's largest women's craft fair featuring fine quality crafts from 300 artists, working in glass, fiber, ceramics, jewelry, leather, paper sculpture, wood and other fine arts.

Contact
Fort Mason Center, Festival Pavilion, 650-615-6838
www.celebrationofcraftswomen.org